From SATURDAY September 5, to SATURDAY September 12, 1741.

The Remainder of the Extract from the London Weekly Miſcellany, begun in our laſt.

THE Tenth Thing which I offer to Mr. Weſley's Conſideration is, what he Means by ſetting up ſo many ſpinning Wheels at the Foundery. Every Body allows that there are above Twenty, and ſome ſay Forty. The common Complaint is, that all this is done with an ill Deſign, for if young Servants follow him, and by this Means neglect their Maſter's Buſineſs, and are turned off for their Undutifulneſs, they ſhall be receiv'd. And if young Girls run away from their Parents, and come to him, they are admitted without asking any Queſtions for Conſcience Sake, whether any of their Relations know any Thing of the Matter. The firſt Cant, which they learn, is, that they are in the right Way to Heaven, that their Parents are certainly damn'd, and therefore they'll go no more to them. By this Means ſome poor raw Girls, who might have had pretty Fortunes, have been drawn away. And their Parents have been forced to ſettle it in a different Manner than what at firſt they intended. When they are there, they muſt work at the ſpinning Wheels, be allowed 6 d. a Day, and the Overplus of the Maintenance muſt go into Mr. Weſley's Pocket, which I ſuppoſe cannot be much, and perhaps in the End may be nothing at all. Here theſe raw Girls are ſoon brought acquainted with Boys as raw as themſelves. They muſt call each other Brother and Siſter, in the Lord, and ſometimes my Dear. They muſt greet each other with a holy Kiſs. And they muſt ſhew the utmoſt Affection in Imitation as they pretend, of the primitive Chriſtians, who were ſo remarkable for their Love to one another. Here they are taught many Precepts of Divinity, as they muſt have the Pangs of a new Birth They muſt have ſomething which they can feel within them, and which muſt grow up to a perfect Man, when they ſhall be delivered from the Burden of the Fleſh. And many other Particulars too tedious to relate. In the Rooms adjoining to the ſpinning Wheels there are ſeveral Beds, that when any of the Congregation falls into Fits with Shrieks and Cries, either real or pretended, they may be carried up, and laid down there. This is interpreted as a Combat between the Fleſh and Spirit, and when they are laid down there this good Man muſt pray over them, and then the evil Spirit is to depart out of them, and the good Spirit is to enter into them, and ſo they are regenerated, and in a State of Grace from that very Inſtant. All theſe Things may be well meant; but as we live in a cenſorious Age, ſo the World is apt to think, that they are neither honeſt, nor lovely, nor of good Report. And therefore, I think, that Mr Weſley is obliged to give a true Account of all theſe Proceedings for Publick Satisfaction; or otherwiſe it may ſo happen, that he may ſtand in need of Teſtimonials from Briſtol or Georgia, to clear his own Character.

Laſtly, let Mr. Weſley ſeriouſly conſider, whether after all his ſpecious Pretences to Religion, the Whole may not be a mere Deſign of Self-intereſt at the Bottom. The World is apt to think ſo. What happen'd Mr. Seward for his blind Devotion, and how many Thouſand Pounds his own Family hath ſuffered by it, is too well known. And it is not improbable, but there may be many private Inſtances of the ſame Nature. Some ſay, that he hath received Three Guineas, others Ten, others Twenty, and ſome Thirty at one Time Mr. Weſley well knows how to breakfaſt with one of his Devotees, dine with another, and ſup with the Third; which retrenches the Charges of Houſe-keeping at Home. But that can be but a Trifle. They who ſit in his Gallery muſt ſubſcribe 5 s. a Quarter. Others who ſtand, muſt ſubſcribe 1 d. a Week. He who advances 2 s. 6 d. a Quarter, is admitted into the cloſe Society, and he who advances 5 s. a Quarter, is admitted to be a Member of the cloſe Bands, where Men and Women may ſtay all Night; but what they do at that Time, is only known to God and Themſelves. It is ſaid, that they ſpend the whole Time in Prayer and other religious Exerciſes, for the propagating of their Party, and raiſing up a holy Seed for the Good of the next Generation. The Price of reſolving the Caſes of Conſcience, which he hath raiſed, muſt be 3 Pence whenever he pleaſes, he can make an Addition of a Sermon, or other Diſcourſe, or a Book of Hymns, and if he prints a Thouſand, he knows that he can have quick Sale and ready Money, there have been ſeveral Editions of his Hymns ſold for 2 s. 6 d. which could not coſt him above 1 s. 6 d. ſo that he gets 50 l. at leaſt by every Impreſſion So that by his Preaching, Book-ſelling, Work houſe, Wheedling, and Spinning, and other Arts beſt known to himſelf, it is generally believed, that he gets 700 l. a Year, and ſome ſay above 1000 l. This is Prieſt Craft in Perfection, and if he is miſrepreſented, let him ſtate it right. I cannot think of this, but it puts me in mind of Wiſd. xv. 12. They counted our Life a Paſtime, and our Time here a Market for Gain; for, ſay they, we muſt be getting every Way, though it be by evil Means A Religious Cheat is the Worſt of all, and when we have ſaid all that we can ſay of it, we cannot ſay bad enough. I think, that theſe are ſerious Conſiderations, and therefore I ſhall leave them to God and his own Conſcience to conſider of them, if he hath any Conſcience ſtill left. And I ſhall conclude the whole with the Words of our bleſſed Saviour, which I deſire him to think, and prevent the Conſequences of them before it is too late, Matth xxiii. 14, 15. Woe unto you, Scribes and Phariſees, Hypocrites, for ye devour Widow's Houſes, and for a Pretence make long Prayers; therefore ye ſhall receive the greater Damnation, Woe unto you Scribes and Phariſees, for ye compaſs Sea and Land to make one Proſelyte, and when he is made, ye make him two-fold more the Child of Hell than Yourſelves. But God grant, that he may ſee his Errors, repent of them, turn from them, prevent the Conſequences of them in this World, and in the next.

By a private Letter from North Carolina, we have Advice of the Death of Cardinal de Fleury.

All the further Account we have of the Ship now at Georgia, is, that she was taken some time ago off the Capes of Virginia, by a Spanish Privateer Sloop, and immediately fitted out for a Privateer; some time after they both return'd on our Coast, took the Three Ships mentioned in our last, and several others, with which they were again going to the Havanna, but in a Gale of Wind the Ship aforesaid was separated from the rest and lost her Masts. We hear that before the Spaniards quitted the Ship, they gave her to Capt. Henry's Men, who were all (Prisoners) on board.
